

Prices

My prices for original framed paintings and for unframed prints and giclees are based on size and in average comparison to gallery prices for working artists of comparable quality and experience. Variations from these prices generally reflect my costs for particular frames and materials: Unframed pieces and unframed “gallery wraps” can be sold for less. Inquire.

Discounts or free shipping may be available for multiple purchases. I also have an archive of originals, many of which are not framed, that may be available for greater discounts.

- A free copy of my first volume of paintings and poems, “The Poetry of Place” is offered to collectors purchasing $400 or more
