

My Painting Marathon

The Scoop-

Each day or early the following morning, I'll post the previous days' efforts on this blog. The paintings from each day will be sequentially numbered and labeled starting on April 1st.

The paintings will all be 5"x7", in either landscape or portrait format, and will be painted in oils on archival substrates. And yes (I'm not bashful), they will be available for sale.

The paintings for each day will be labeled...

4/1-1, 4/1-2, 4/1-3, 4/1-4, indicating April 1st -#1, April 1st- #2 ... and so on.

To Purchase-

The price of each painting is US $110.00 plus shipping and insurance. They will be available on a first come, first served basis.

I'll ship each painting safely wrapped and insured for the full value, via USPS Priority or International Priority Mail service.

The total 'current price' including the current shipping and insurance charges-

US purchasers - US$117.55

Minnesota purchasers add state sales tax - US$124.70

Purchasers from Canada- US$123.55

Purchasers from Mexico- US$125.25

All other International purchasers- US$127.25

The paintings may be purchased directly from the website using the PayPal 'Buy Now' button, or by sending a check or money order.

If you are not using PayPal be sure to email me as soon as you know that you want a particular painting so that I can remove it from the 'Buy Now' option and check it's availability. I cannot guarantee that between the time you email me and I get to the computer that someone else won't have already sent an email, or purchased it via PayPal. Don't panic, there are going to be 120 paintings in this series!

I'll ship the paintings as soon as the payment clears and the paintings are dry enough to ship safely. In most cases the ship date would be within 2 weeks of a purchase. When a painting is shipped you will be notified by email.
