Clos Saint Cadreuc, a former farm, and a priory's outbuilding, was built in 1633. This large stone house is composed of two "longères", separated by a rock garden. In the heart of nature and only four kilometers from the sea, Clos Saint Cadreuc is a haven of peace, calm and tranquility right on the Emerald Coast.

Clos Saint Cadreuc is close to Saint Malo (City of Corsairs) Dinard (seaside resort of the Roaring Twenties), Dinan (medieval city) and many famous sites (Cap Fréhel, Saint Cast, Saint Lunaire, Saint Briac, Lancieux, Fort la Latte...).
