Summer 2010

News from Diane Hutchinson at the Cellar Studio

dianehutchinson.com

Welcome to the Summer Issue of the Cellar Studio Newsletter. The summer is flying by and I continue to paint scenes that fascinate me. This newsletter will recap some of the happenings here at the Cellar Studio at Sunny Hill Farm. I would love to hear from you. Tell me what you would like to see in these issues. Please feel free to email me dhutchin@ptd.net or comment on my blog <http://dianehutchinson.blogspot.com> Tell your friends, too!

Occasionally, I will receive a request to do a commission painting for someone. Usually, they ask for a painting of their home or some other scene they love. This watercolor was created for a friend. It's called "His Paradise".

A Good Afternoon

This oil painting was selected for the regional viewing of the first annual United Way of Pennsylvania Fine Art and Photography Exhibit: Collage of a Commonwealth. The entire world is in reach...

My private art lessons with the acclaimed artist, Douglas Wiltraut, continue. I'm honored that he has accepted me as a student and am still awestruck as I observe him paint. Here he is signing a recent watercolor.
