

Café des Artistes

Welcomes you to a weekly roundup of Maine art news, opening and shows

Dan Graziano wins at Easels in Frederick

Posted on July 3, 2014 by Anthony Anderson

The art of Dan Graziano was honored at Easels in Frederick, a national plein air painting event that took place June 16 – 21 in historic Frederick, MD. Graziano, of Castine was the recipient of the Best Painting with an Architectural Subject in The City of Frederick and a $1,000 cash prize for his oil painting. Graziano was one of 30 national juried artists who participated in the fourth annual, five-day event during which time more than 100 paintings were executed, displayed, judged and sold to the public at the Grand Exhibition. Nationally-known Nashville-based plein air artist and event judge, Anne Blair Brown, awarded a total of 13 prizes at the exhibition with cash awards totaling $14,500. A total of 51 paintings were purchased by the approximately 1,100 exhibition attendees. For more information about the event visit easelsinfrederick.org.

Share this:

Print

Email

Facebook 22

Twitter

Google

This entry was posted in general announcements by Anthony Anderson. Bookmark the permalink [\[http://cafedesartistes.bangordailynews.com/2014/07/03/dan-graziano-wins-at-easels-in-frederick/\]](http://cafedesartistes.bangordailynews.com/2014/07/03/dan-graziano-wins-at-easels-in-frederick/)